

1910

A wide-angle photograph of a sunset over a large body of water, likely a lake or coastal area. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, with bright orange and yellow sunlight reflecting off their edges and illuminating patches of the water. In the distance, a dark, silhouetted shoreline or group of islands is visible across the horizon.

Dedication

JON M. MAJURI

To the eager student, a competent teacher; to the confused child, a trusting friend; to the follower, a capable leader; and to aspiring youth, an example worth imitation. To you, Mr. Majuri, we, the class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook, with respect, admiration and a grateful heart.

Superintendent's Message

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan "Press on," has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race.

—Calvin Coolidge

Sincere best wishes for the success of every member of the Class of 1967.

Principal's Message

To The Class of 1967:

Keep vigil, the forever of now,
Not best by past-things imperfect.
Overburden impels beyond its weight,
Withstand, lest form gives way to crass.

Toward ends without neglect
Hold forth by resolve
Yet with confluence of will and able.

Surley, if the dream shall not inveigle,
Each and each alone must henceforth
Lift with cerebral conviction
Frailty, modicum, and bland.

KENNETH L. JOHNSON
Principal

Vice-Principal's Message

To The Class of 1967:

For you, this June is a time to look backward fondly with a sense of accomplishment. You have completed a definite part of life; the period of growing up.

You are now ready to look ahead to adulthood, to continuing growth and strength, accomplishment and service, to yourself, your family, and your community.

As you start your personal journeys into the future, we wish you a warm farewell and God speed to your endeavors.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH L. KING
Vice-Principal

Class History

In June of 1963, the frigate "M.H.S. 1967" began preparations for leaving port of H.B. Burkland Junior High School for a four year journey across the sea of Memorial High. The next two months were spent in anticipation, for we were landlubbers and sailing was a new experience. In September, with our courses set, we weighed anchor and drifted out to sea.

Our first duty was to choose our officers. They were President, Carl Mecke; Vice President, Nancy Borsari; Secretary, Lynne Spencer; and Treasurer, Kathleen Scanlon. Under their leadership, we bravely battled the storms of freshmanhood. The voices of freshman cheerleaders Nancy Borsari, Cynthia Makepeace, Carol O'Brien, Melodie Vaughn, Rose-Mary Smith, Dottie Jurgens and Kathleen Scanlon could be heard for miles across the ocean. Five of the ship's musicians were chosen to go to S.E.M.S.B.A. Near the end of December we were warned of an approaching storm, and in January, midyears struck. Near the close of our first year, Wayne Sanborn and Mark Shaw were named outstanding crew members and elected to the Silver "M" Society.

Our second year at sea found us with a new captain. Vincent Sykes took the helm as President, assisted by Michelle Chartier as Vice President, Janet Jeffery as Secretary, and Kathleen Scanlon as Treasurer. Those moving up to varsity cheerleading were Carol O'Brien and Rose-Mary Smith. First mate Michelle Chartier and deckhand Kathleen Scanlon were chosen for the Silver "M" Society. In December, we were nearly shipwrecked by "Winter Fantasy", our first attempt at a dance. Only two musicians went to the District Music Festival, but thirteen went to S.E.M.S.B.A. Since we had grown accustomed to storms, mid-years affected us little. Chief engineer Bruce Bigelow and his assistants Maeve Elkin, Linda Sinnott, and Carl Mecke were selected to go to the Regional Science Fair. We ended the year with excitement, knowing that soon we would be upper classmen.

At the start of our junior year, our course took us to the Island of Class Rings. Though we lost money, we gained prestige. Vincent, Michelle, and Kathy remained as officers, and Lynne Spencer returned for another year as Secretary. The most popular book of the year was Questions and Answers Relating to the Motor Vehicle Laws. New members of Silver "M" were Captain Vincent Sykes and cabin boy, Bernard Barboza. The varsity cheerleaders were joined by Dottie Jurgens. In January, five of the crew floated away for two days at the District concert, and eleven went to S.E.M.S.B.A. Ellen Burnham was chosen for Girls' State, and James Shaw and Roger Thomas were named delegates to Boys' State. Ship's cook Helen Holden was the recipient of the Crisco Homemaking Award. Bruce Bigelow again represented us at the Regional Scince Fair. Richard Robidoux was selected to participate in a summer study course and trip to the Soviet Union. "April in Paris", our "unforgettable" junior prom, was the social event of the year. Late into the midnight watch, Mr. Majuri could be found assembling our twenty-foot high Eiffel Tower. Program and refreshment preparations were carried out under the supervision of Mrs. Buck. May brought the induction of nineteen juniors into the National Honor Society. They were Sheila Batchelder, Ellen Burnham, Evelyn Carver, Judith Curley, Kathleen Duggan, Janet Farley, Martha Howard, Kevin Jagla, Janet Jeffery, Dorothy Jurgens, Cheryl Korpinen, James Michael, Stephenie Prescott, Richard Robidoux, John Robbins, Gerard Savard, Linda Sinnott, Kathleen Tripp, and Louise Williams. The Society performed their flag raising ceremonies and other duties under the direction of their officers, President, James Michael; Vice-President, Richard Robidoux; Secretary, Kathleen Duggan; and Treasurer, Judith Curley.

A strong wind blew us into our senior year. Vincent and Michelle remained at the wheel, Kathy Scanlon became secretary and Bernard Barboza became Treasurer. Student council activities were conducted under President, Carol O'Brien; Vice-President, Donna Deane; Secretary, Judith Curley; and Treasurer, Rose-Mary Smith. Carol O'Brien and Rose-Mary Smith became the co-captains of the cheerleading squad. The football team dove into another season led by co-captains Wayne Sanborn, Paul Gerrior and Vincent Sykes. Wayne Sanborn was named "Most Valuable Player" and Donald Farley was the recipient of the Judge L. Francis Callan Award. The highlight of the season was the crowning of the Football Queen, Rose-Mary Smith. Two of the ship's scholars, Martha Howard and Linda Sinnott, received National Merit Letters of Commendation.

In December, a month known for surprises, Judy Curley and Richmond Matthews received a pleasant one when they were tapped for membership in the Silver "M" Society. Five more sailors made the grade and became eligible for induction into the National Honor Society. The new members were Bruce Bigelow, Mary Hannon, Lillian Hunt, Suzanne Rudolph, and Cheryl Silvia. Mark Shaw was elected as our Student Government Day representative, and Judith Curley was the recipient of the DAR Award.

During the winter months, our athletic teams were not dormant. The basketball crew, under the leadership of its captain, Steve Barnicoat, launched into another season, while our winter track team, under coach Majuri, was also active.

The Senior Play, the Senior Reception, and Graduation finished our Senior year in a way we shall never forget. Our four year journey as passengers on the frigate "M.H.S. 1967" has come to an end, but we will continue to "sail on the sea of ambition, to land on the shore of success."

GERARD CRUSOE AND HIS GIRL DOTTIE SATURDAY
DEDICATED TO ALL THE SURVIVORS AND RESCUERS CONCERNED WITH THE EPISODE

In 1984, Gerard Crusoe, Captain of the M.H.S. Sykes, named after the 40th President of the United States, set out with one hundred select passengers from the new Robidoux-Hunt Memorial Shrine in Moscow, with hopes of returning to their homeland, the United States. Among the passengers were the famous tap dancing duet, Kaiser and Bump; leading rocket designer for the U.S., Bruce Bigelow; top notch farm produce expert, James Shaw; millionaire artist, Jeff Thomas; the leading daredevil team, Graham and Waterman; famous Paris designers, Korpinen and McDonald; leading woman horse trainer, Susan Flood; the U.S. Olympic basketball team consisting of Pat Salley, Captain, Sandra Hebert, Mary Hannon, Charlene Squires, Rosetta Oblachinsky, and Faye Williams; and last but not least the comedy team of Sukus and Simas.

About half way across the ocean, Crusoe's navigator, Jurgens, whom he kiddingly called Dottie Saturday, reported the ship's navigation equipment was out of order and rough seas and heavy fog would encompass the ship by night. Chief engineer Duffany reported the engines were faltering. Ship's cook Mecke reported the galley had sprung a leak and the entire food supply had been ruined.

"Send an S.O.S. to any ship in the area," Crusoe told his radioman Brackett. "Sorry sir, but my C.D. unit won't broadcast over a half mile."

All night the helpless ship tossed among the angry waves. When dawn broke, the sea had settled and so had the ship, right on a sandbar. The captain commanded the passengers to abandon the ship. Jim Levesque and Doug Gerrior helped the passengers into the lifeboats.

Reaching the land, Crusoe mumbled to Jurgens, "Well, we did it again." (This was the Captain's fourth accident) Misses Gallagher, Fetherston, Weston, Carver, Minkle, Cleaves, Combra, Tripp, and Farmer, a team of nurses, offered their assistance to some of the panic stricken passengers. Engineers Allison, Mott, Soule, Browne, and McCarrick set to work building huts while Baptiste, Baker, Ingariola, and Benson went to look for possible native dancers. Bill Morrison and Pat O'Brien fell asleep under the shade of a tree. Rosey, Carol Kathy, and Nancy stood cheering the workers on. Ron Phillips, Bob Thomas, David and Robert Rebell, Mike Lemmo, Tom Pena, Ken Wade, Brad Smith, Ed Thompson, Guy Hudson, Tom Bolia, Ritchie Turner, and Mike Gallagher retreated from the work to find a quiet place to discuss their new super engine.

Dick Ducasse, millionaire Key Club owner, relaxed in the shade surrounded by his favorite girls, Candy, Ceryl, Ruth, Carolyn, Kathy, and Susan. Jim Tait, Kev Jagla, and John Robbins set out determined to find a way to practice for the coming season with the Canadiens, while Red, Steve, and Paul led by Bernie and Wayne went West—The only direction to find Greenbay. Jim Booker, the world's fastest man on two wheels, moaned at the thought of walking. Doug Thomas worried about his potatoes in Maine, while Henry Gates relaxed under a tree reading a book. Barbara Zion tried to teach Martha Howard, Linda Sinnott, Cheryl Howard and Mary Pierce how to draw a circle. June Michael, the famous woman race driver, went for a swim to get refreshed from the hot sun. The famous tandem surfing team, Chartier and Matthews, searched the opposite side of the island for possible surf and perhaps even material for their new movie, "The End of Summer". Upon reaching the other side they noticed a large towering structure and a green giant emerging from the lifting fog. The two passed the sight off as a mirage, but when they heard the drone of motors, they realized that help was on the way.

"Ahoy, castaways" yelled a voice. It was that of Tony Belmont, the leader of the rescue party, consisting of Reverend Shaw, social workers Mary Howard, Janice Meleo, and Helen Holden. The Red Cross was also on hand to aid the passengers. It was led by June Abramson and consisted of Sandy Caswell, Mary Day, Audrey Cleverly, Sally Warren, Eleanor Pittsley, Joan Remedis, and Cheryl Washburn. Felicia Pieretti and Patrice Landry helped pass out food.

Entertainment was brought to the island to lift their spirits. Some of the entertainers were the famous A Go-Go dancers, Fitting, Hittle, Gross, and Dorr; folk singer, Kathy Gomes; lecturer, Kate Gillis; dancing partners, Gammons and Granfield; band leader, Monte, with his band, Roger Thomas, Ellen Burnham, Mike Tripp, Joe Walker, and Roger Moquin; singers, Melodie and Sheila Vaughn; the stunt team of Keough and Keedwell; and the world's most noted authority on baseball, Billy Smith.

Along with the rescue party was the complete reporting staff of the Wilcox Gazette, and various reporters from the Curley Chronicle and the Farley Twins' Times. Among the most noted reporters from the Curley Chronicle were Kathy Duggan, Janet Jeffery, Maeve Elkin, Donna Deane, and Sheila Batchelder, while from the Farley Twins' Times were Wayne Richards, Stephanie Prescott, Suzanne Rudolph, and Beverly Reimels, also Quagan and Hocking, the investigators, disguised as reporters. The only photographer allowed was Ann "Candid" Sarkes. The stream of people flowing on and off the island was directed by the undaunted Stephenie Sullivan, assisted by Ben Mackiewicz who issued tickets to the speeders.

The big question was finally popped by Jim Michael. He wanted to know how anyone could think himself marooned on an island at the tip of New York and not realize that it was Staten Island.

Remember When:

Billy threw a football and knocked Carol out at Mrs. Sweeney's party.
Stef and Rosie fooled the faculty.
There was a surprise (?) birthday party for Ricky Robidoux in the Donut Delite.
Judy and Cheryl walked two miles in a blizzard just to go tobogganing.
The frogs and other specimens were dissected beyond recognition in the biology lab.
Two local girls "thumbed" to Horseneck Beach (Did she say thumbed?)
The chemistry lab nearly went up in flames when Jim Browne lit a gas jet.
Dottie Bump fell down the stairs (Was it really the heels, Dottie?)
Mrs. Johnson demonstrated the proper way to cut glass and the demonstration was interrupted when a band-aid was needed.
A few field hockey sticks were broken in the same game at Hingham.
The referee called dangerous kicking on our goalie (Was that the day you were wearing those "combat" boots, Judy?)
Steve and Kevin were altar boys.
An announcement was broadcast on T.V. that school had been cancelled. (Wonder how many students had to make up their missed English midyears.)
The band bus broke down on the way home from Lebanon, N. H. and the driver couldn't find his license.
We had to put on assemblies in the eighth grade (Will 814 ever forget their Christmas Carol?)
Mr. Natale sang Moon River at our eighth grade prom.
Some of us had difficulties getting to out of town centers for CECB Tests
Seven senior girls came to Billy's rescue at a basketball game.
It was the first day after the girls' basement went to the opposite sex. (Wrong room girls?)
Sykes got the flat football.
Vinnie was elected president of the senior class and didn't even know if he was going to pass.
On Halloween five senior girls went "trick-a-treating."
Eighteen girls received the "Curved Bar Award".
Mrs. Bennett's car stalled once . . . stalled again . . . and again . . .
Our class rings came.
We entered Memorial High as freshmen in September, 1963.

The Queen and Her Court

Queen Rose Mary

The Traditional Football

Meanwhile, at the Dance . . .

"Oooh! My feet are killing me!"

"I don't mind going to dances as long as I don't have to pay for the corsages."

"I don't care if I did escort her, I'm not posing for another picture!"

"What's everybody looking at?" . . .

"Oh! It must be Carol and Billy"

"What do you mean I have to pay for my punch!"

"Wouldn't you know the boys would find the food."

"Oh! this!" Mother never made brownies like

Class Hill

Cindi Weston leaves her sousaphone to the next broad-shouldered female.

Judy Curley, Janet Jeffery, and Kathy Duggan will a gallon of gasoline, a permanent green light, and a mechanic to Mrs. Bennett.

Ed Thompson leaves a knee bandage to "Mouse" and "Milton."

The Senior Russian students leave the Russian language and Mr. Sullivan to recover.

Kathy Tripp and Kathy Farmer leave a warped baton to Jean, Debby and Valerie.

John Sukus leaves Monday mornings to any unfortunate junior, but he's taking Friday nights with him.

Donna Hittle goes wondering how she made it.

The junior class has inherited seven feet of rubber from Ray Waterman and Steve Graham.

Cheryl Korpinen leaves absolutely nothing to her sister.

Doug Soule, Mike Tripp, and Don Quagan leave their baseball equipment.

Mary Hannon leaves her field hockey uniform behind.

June Abramson leaves her typewriter to J.P.

Bill Allison leaves Joe Laura two more years with the girls at M.H.S.

Bruce Baptiste leaves his dancing shoes to Joe Lemmo.

Linda Broadbent leaves Joanie flirting with the boys.

Tony Belmont leaves a battered band hat.

Bernie Barboza leaves the balancing of the Treasurer's books to anyone who wants to tackle the job.

Dotty Bump leaves her "Secret" to the next unfortunate gym student.

Sheila Batchelder leaves her Southern accent to the next Confederate at M.H.S.

Bruce Bigelow leaves a rocket failure to Mike Flynn.

Jim Brown, Joe Walker, John Robbins, and Kevin Jagla leave Fort Courage to the uncertain but trusting hands of Barry and Jay.

Kenny Benson leaves the bowling league.

Jim Booker wills a pair of long green socks to M.H.S.

Ellen Burnham makes a Bee-line for her destination.
Linda Sinnott leaves her brother coming in.
Bob Thomas leaves Robert a lot of luck.
Ben Mackiewicz leaves the football manager's position open.
Kathy Minkle leaves her brother with one more year to go.
Chuck Monte leaves leading the Sabres.
Cheryl Howard leaves with a mind full of geometry theorems.
Brad Smith leaves after a short stay at M.H.S.
Charlene Squires wills her basketball skill to future players.
Wayne Wilcox, Barry Wilbur, Tommy Smith, and Billy Smith leave saying "good morning" to Mr. Warchol.
Cheryl Washburn leaves Neil behind.
Roger Thomas Leaves his place at Boys' State to next year's representative.
Sandy Caswell leaves the telephone ringing in Miss Veazie's office.
Maeve Elkin, Janet Jeffery, Kathy Duggan, Judy Curley, Cindi Weston, and Ellen Burnham leave Sue looking for Art.
Dottie Jurgens leaves Carol to Miss Jenness.
Nancy Fetherson leaves Barbara with two more years of detention.
Kathy Gallagher wills her long blond tresses to those in need.
Michelle Chartier leaves her appendix to Carol.
Janet Jeffery leaves her broken field hocky sticks to Carol.
To one Morrison from another: always be friendly toward girls.
Lewis Gammons leaves Mr. Johnson a piece of bread and butter so he can catch the jam when it goes by in the corridor.
Charlene Fitting leaves Miss Jenness with one more Fitting to go.
"Red" Farley leaves Pecker and Rosey fighting over his game jersey.
Stephanie Prescott leaves her tired feet to next year's office girl.
Sue Savard leaves to work on project C.A.S.S.
Dave and Robert Rebell leave with no regrets.
Kathy Scanlon leaves M.H.S. after working four years in vain on project "Chase 'n Sanborn."

Janice Meleo wills her Manter Hall to Andy.

Paul Gerrior and Carl Mecke leave next year's class a better football record.

Ricky Robidoux leaves Mr. Sullivan his pocket dictionaries.

Tom Pena wills the school to Jerry.

Charlie Simas leaves Jim Dunn a pair of slicks.

Pat Landry and Felicia Pieretti leave the greatest times of their lives.

Kenny Wade leaves his lopsided homeroom chair in 17 to an unbalanced person.

Sheila and Melodie Vaughn leave their enthusiasm for singing to future A Cappella choir members.

Vinny Sykes leaves the office of president vacant.

Jeff Thomas leaves with a sketching pad and a pencil in hand.

Doug Thomas leaves the school with an all-time endurance record.

Mary Combra and Donna Cleaves leave corridor-walking to the underclassmen.

Jerry Savard and Jim Hocking divide their Russian knowledge among the freshmen.

Joan Remedis leaves M.H.S.; but not Chuck.

Mike Mott leaves with a slide rule (oops!)

Tom Bolia leaves history as it was.

Jim Levesque leaves wondering what the chemistry movies were all about.

Mary Day leaves with that special "Guy."

Wayne Farley leaves with the future in mind.

Barbara Zion leaves Peggy wondering how she was short-changed.

Arthur Gallagher leaves to engage in larger endeavors.

Doug Gerrior wills his industrious ways to the less fortunate.

Mary Pierce leaves with memories of the past four years.

Wayne Sanborn leaves Joanne to walk the corridors . . . alone?

The business girls leave with warm thanks to Mrs. Moore.

Dick Ducasse leaves hoping to capture "Boots'" heart.

Bob Ingargiola leaves a cloud of smoke and a wheel stand for a Yamaha.

Donna Deane leaves Carol to watch Tommy.
Janet Farley leaves her place in the lunch line to Evie.
Kathy Duggan wills her broken drum to her talkative friends.
Judy Curley leaves the goalie cage . . . empty!
Mark Shaw leaves his friendly attitude and sincerity as an example for all.
Nancy Borsari leaves Martha to watch Billy.
Audrey Cleverly and Sally Warren leave at a trot.
Rosetta Oblachinsky leaves some vitamin pills for the weary.
Bill McCarrick leaves his track photos behind.
Jim Shaw leaves to hoe the fields.
Sue Flood leaves the echo of Becky Williams' laugh to Mr. Carullo.
Kathy Gillis leaves making room for the twelfth Gillis.
Linda Granfield leaves Sue a year of peace.
Jim Tait leaves the memory of his Canadian accent to the girls.
Evie Carver leaves her waitressing ability to Maryanna.
Henry Gates leaves to get some peace and quiet.
Mike Lemmo wills to Mr. Morgan the memory of last year's 7th period history class.
Kev Keough, Ronnie Phillips and Gary Keedwell leave the school a little quieter.
Martha Howard's example is left for the other Howards.
Pat O'Brien leaves to get some rest.
Steve Barnicoat leaves taking athletic abilities with him.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby set our seal of approval to this, our last will and testament, herein made on this seventh day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven; and we do appoint Arthur Judge, President of the Class of 1968, to the position of trustee, in order that he may carry out our wishes.

Signed:

Cheryle Silvia
Janet Jeffery
Donna Deane
Linda Simmott

Witnesses:

Ann Sorkes
Mrs. Barbara Bennett

"I know I wrote it down somewhere!"

"I'll pay for the broken test tube and you pay for the lab repairs."

"I've never had anyone laugh at the sine curve before!"

"I thought he went that way!"

"I'd just like to take off and get away from it all!"

"You know Steve, our bowling team would be great if ... "

"The carriage keeps going back and forth by itself! What should I do?"

That Polonius was a funny fellow.

2nd. Row L. to R.: E. Frankl; D. Duggan; J. Curley; J. Jeffery; D. Jurgens.

The Charles Playhouse Group was established four years ago under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Millet. Under Mr. Zilonis' direction, the fourteen members travel to the Charles Playhouse in Boston where they attend the productions. The group has attended two plays already and is looking forward to the rest of a truly entertaining activity.

French Club

Seated L. to R.: S. Gerrior, President; J. Burke, Vice President; F. Freitag.
Standing L. to R.: J. Gates; R. Lewis; D. Dugas, Secretary-Treasurer.

ADVISOR
Miss Elizabeth Roht

The members of the French Club meet under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Roht once a month. These meetings give the group a chance to practice French in a social, relaxed situation. To create a lively appreciation of the language, records and total conversation enhance these gatherings.

Student Librarians

The Junior Red Cross under the direction of Mr. Joseph Masi encourages interest in others by giving to the less fortunate. The money to carry on the activities of the Middleboro Junior Red Cross is raised by voluntary service fund collections held weekly in each homeroom by representatives. One of the major activities of the year is that of the Christmas Fund.

Traffic Squad

Mr. Joseph King

The nine members of the Traffic Squad are the junior and senior members of the student council. Under the direction of Mr. Joseph King, they control student traffic in the school. Donna Deane, vice-president of the Student Council, is the captain of the squad.

Office Supervisors

Mrs. Esther L. Moore

L. to R. M. Howard, C. Silvia, B. Reimels D. Bump, R. Shanks, S. Prescott.

The Office Supervisors are an asset to the effective operation of the school. In preparation for a secretarial career, they take inventory, do banking, and assist in other office work. Composed of six senior girls, the group meets seventh period every day under the direction of Mrs. Esther Moore.

3rd Row L. to R.: K. Keough, K. Benson, D. Thomas, G. Keedwell, J. Sukus,
J. Cordeiro, D. Quagan, C. Simas

ADVISOR
Mr. Byron Morgan

The Bowling Club met once a week to bowl at the YMCA. The six participating teams, under the leadership of Mr. Byron Morgan, created a first for M.H.S.—an out-of-school-activity. Although still in its infancy, the club hopes to increase its membership next year in order to promote an atmosphere of high-spirited competition.

Future Nurses Club

Seated L. to R. S. Morris, C. Jurgens, M. Duff, K. Junior.
2nd Row: K. Greenleaf, S. Starrett, J. Clay, S. Jennings, P. Lynch.

ADVISOR
Mrs. Helen Pardey

The Future Nurses Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Pardey, has been in existence for five years. The club's twelve members have a varied and interesting program concerning their interest in the nursing profession. During the year they visit hospitals and learn the qualifications of nursing candidates. They also acquaint themselves with the academic requirements of a nursing career and study the schools which offer a program suited to their needs.

Future Teachers Club

Seated L. to R. J. Sanborn, N. McNeil, D. MacDonald, M. Howard C. Oakes, E. Carver.
2nd. Row: M. Shaw, B. Sylvia, N. Briggs, A. Belmont, P. Frenchko, K. Heimerdinger, E. Parks.

ADVISOR
Miss Dorothy Wetherell

The Future Teacher's Club was founded three years ago by Mr. Henry Burkland. Miss Dorothy Wetherell, their present advisor, has provided the club with unique experiences that graphically illustrate the profession. Through speakers and visits to elementary schools, the students learn about the qualifications and facets of the teaching profession. Every encouragement is given to these future pedagogues.

Future Homemakers Club

Seated L. to R.: D. Simmons, J. Rogers, J. Thomas, G. Clem.
Standing: L. to R.: M. Thomas, F. Williams, S. Vaughn, K. Heimerdinger, H. Holden.

ADVISOR
Mrs. M. Christiana Gates

The future homemakers club provides girls with an opportunity to work on projects under supervision so they will be better able to cope with their future roles as homemakers. Under Mrs. Gates' supervision the girls also set up individual projects and displays.

Boys' and Girls' State

Seated L. to R.: J. Shaw, E. Burnham, R. Thomas

Two boys from MHS were chosen to be the school's representatives at Boys' State. The selection was based on their knowledge of history and politics. Our representative at Girls' State was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary to inculcate a sense of responsibility to community, state, and nation. Each group sets up its own government, elects its own officers, and runs itself for the week. This is an opportunity for the students to obtain practical experience in self-government and citizenship.

Potential Art Class and Art Club

Michael Holick Kathy Scanlon

Michelle Chartier Jeffrey Thomas

Karson Paquin, Miss Eileen Dowd, Cheryl Korpinen, David Rebell

These creative activities provide students with artistic talent an opportunity to delve into the realm of experimental creativity. Under the direction of Miss Dowd, herself a talented artist, these students work in various medias using their own individual styles. One look at the work produced leaves one to reflect that art is not only a decoration of life, but a comment from the soul of the artist.

District

Seven MHS musicians in the band, one in the orchestra, and five chorus members took part in the District Festival Concert held in Stoughton on January 21, 1967. After a day and a half of rehearsals, the students got a chance to be under a different director and in an exciting elite group, playing and singing the best in classical and modern music.

Middleboro Posts 51-47 Hoop Win

By DON SHURTLEFF

MIDDLEBORO — Memoria High retained a spot in the first division of the Old Colony League Thursday night and is doing so by revenge for an early-season defeat from Rockland High, 51-47, before a packed house at the Middleboro gym. The Orange and Black took an early 16-3 lead before Rockland could find the range. The Sachems held their 12 to 15 point spread throughout the second frame and led at the half, 30-17.

The same type of play continued during the third period until the visitors controlled the boards in the closing minutes to cut the lead to 42-31.

Middleboro by 44-40

Then Middleboro got cold and could not hit for a field goal until 2:03 remaining in the contest when Don Farley hit on a short jumper.

In fact the only points the hosts scored in the first five minutes of that final quarter were three free throws by Bob MacAulay.

Rockland started its drive midway through the final frame cutting the lead to 44-40 with 5:30 remaining as John Melvin from underneath.

Rick Armstrong brought the game to its closest point with 3:12 remaining on a long jumper. Then Farley picked up Middleboro's first field goal, Steve Kramer added a free throw to up the score to 49-44 before MacAulay hit for a final basket with 1:15 remaining to ice the contest.

Farley Shines

Farley did a tremendous job on the boards for Middleboro. Kramer and MacAulay did a fine job on defense with their ballhawking.

MacAulay led Middleboro scorers with 13 points followed by Barnicoat, Farley and Kramer with 12, 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Melvin had all scores for the night with 16. Thornton added another 10 for Rockland.

Sachems Down Abington 72-63

JV's Also Score Thrilling Victory

Middleboro traveled to Abington Tuesday night and handed Abington High a 72-63 loss after the J. V.'s had won their thriller 35-32.

In the varsity game Middleboro led throughout with four of Middleboro's starters hitting double figures. Don Farley led the way with 21, followed by MacAulay with 20, Steve Barnicoat 18 and Sophomore Jim Braga, 10.

Middleboro jumped off to an 18-11 lead in the initial period with Barnicoat tossing in eight points while MacAulay chipped in with five for the first quarter. Midway through the second quarter Middleboro had increased their lead to 30-14 with Don Farley starting to find the range and throwing in nine points for the quarter and Middleboro led 37-18 as the tight Middleboro defense limited Abington to seven points for the entire second period.

Abington had the highest scoring period of the game in the third as they tallied 26 points, seven more than they had for the entire first half but Middleboro scored 17 of their own to maintain a 54-44 lead going into the final period and won out 72-63.

Middleboro's next home game is Friday night when they take on the Scituate Sailors at the local gym with the JV teams of the respective schools meeting in a preliminary game at 6:30 p. m.

The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made

A dramatic sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sky is filled with large, billowing clouds, some illuminated from behind by a bright sun, while others are dark and silhouetted. The horizon shows a range of hills or mountains. In the foreground, the dark surface of the water reflects the light from the sky.
